Urban Refugees
Challenges in Protection, Services and Policy

Edited by Koichi Koizumi, Daito Bunka University, Tokyo and Gerhard Hoffstaedter, University of Queensland, Australia

Series: Routledge Research in Place, Space and Politics

Urban refugees now account for over half the total number of refugees worldwide. Yet to date far more research has been done on refugees living in camps and settlements set up expressly for them. This book provides crucial insights into the worldwide phenomenon of refugee flows into urban settings, repercussions for those seeking protection, and the agencies and organizations tasked to assist them. This book provides a comparative exploration of refugees and asylum seekers in nine urban areas in Africa, Asia and Europe, demonstrating both the diverse of circumstances in which they live, and their struggle for recognition, protection and livelihoods.
